“Sharing Christ’s Salvation Story So That Every Soul is Saved.”
Answered Prayer

"Please keep Barb and I in your prayers as we travel to and from St. Louis where I will sit for my colloquy interview at 2:45 in the afternoon on May 12. May God's good and gracious will be done."

This is the way I ended my May Torch article. By now most of you have heard that the trip to St Louis went well. We had a safe trip – spent the first night (Monday) in Barb’s sister’s new home east of Lawrence; communed at the seminary’s chapel service on Wednesday morning; saw some old friends at the LCMS International Center; sat for my Colloquy Interview (about 90 minutes); drove to Herman, Missouri and stayed in a wonderful bed & breakfast in the wine country there; returned home Thursday. The colloquy committee chair told me that I would receive a letter in about 10 days with the committee’s decision. I received a phone call around 8:00 Saturday morning from Kansas District President Keith Kohlmeier to tell me that I had been certified for ordination with no additional course work required. God has heard the fervent prayers of his people.

I have been serving in Word and Sacrament ministry for the last 12 years and pursuing ordination for the last 8. I have sought and felt God’s guidance throughout this journey. Like the GPS in my van that gives me directions by telling me what road to take, and when to turn, I have felt God leading me. But also like my GPS unit, there have been times when the message was “OFF ROUTE” and “RECALULATING”. But when I miss a turn or make an unscheduled detour, I am confident my GPS will get me back on route and lead me to the destination. When I was paralyzed from the chest down for over a month with no guarantee that I would ever walk again, I was even more confident that my heavenly GPS (God’s Plan is Supreme) would get me to where he wanted me to go. I had a peace that God would give me a place to serve, people to serve, and a way to serve. I still do not have all the answers to some of the questions I have been asking and that some of you have been asking me – mainly that good Lutheran question, “What does this mean?”

I do know that God is sending us a pastor – Pastor Geoff Boyle. Geoff and his lovely family; wife Nikki and their three little girls Ana (2.5 years), Claire (1.5 years), and Gabriela (5 months) will arrive at the parsonage on August 16. Geoff’s ordination will take place at Grace on the afternoon of August 22. He will also be installed into the pastoral office of Grace at that service and installed at Trinity that evening. This is an answer to many prayers being lifted up over the last couple of years. I am looking forward to serving the people of Trinity and Grace with Geoff and am excited about what God can do with us. I once told the great people of Trinity that there were 7 words I never wanted to hear, “We’ve never done it that way before”. However we have 7 better words that we use at Trinity – “Ponder anew what the Almighty can do!” Our Lord can, and does, do great things; and I pray that we may be his arms, hands, feet, and lips here on earth to accomplish his purpose.

My ordination and installations will take place sometime late September or early October. We are approaching some great milestones for our two congregations. I thank God that my heavenly “GPS” has kept me on track to ordination and will ultimately lead me all the way home where I will see my Beautiful Savior face to face. What a glorious day that will be for each one of us. Until then, we will enjoy all the days God has ordained for us to live and to serve him and each other. To God alone be the glory. Amen!

Why Flag Day is important

America was founded as a “nation under God,” and has been looked up to by other nations for over two hundred years. Unfortunately, other countries — and some of our own citizens — are disgruntled with America today. Even though our reputation has taken some hits, we’re still a strong country with high ideals and proud people.

There’s a simple way you can help show that to the world — by flying the flag. Every time you put a flag out, you’re saying, “I’m an American and proud of what this flag represents.” The flag stands for “life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness,” for religious freedom, and for other rights that many nations lack. The flag represents our history and our goals for a better future for all.

Flag Day is celebrated each year on June 14. Fly your flag high!

TRAVELING BULLETINS

As you travel, if you visit another congregation, please share the bulletin with us.
Dear Friends in Christ,

I am writing to inform your congregation of some very important developments in the Wichita area regarding campus, young adult, and international ministry. As you may have heard, the Kansas District-LCMS is divesting itself of real estate. This includes the University Lutheran Center building and surrounding land south of the WSU campus on 17th street. The Administrative Council of the ULC has asked the District leadership for the opportunity to buy this property before placing it on the open market. It is our desire to maintain local ownership of this property and allow ministry to continue in this place.

Pastors Jeff Crane and Cliff Winter have much to share about this ministry and how you and your congregation can be involved as partners and supporters. Would you please consider inviting Pastors Crane or Winter to come and visit with you during worship, Sunday School, committee meetings, or any gathering of two or three? Our time is short and we have much to accomplish in just a few weeks. The future of this property and the ministry that can thrive here are in God’s hands and we pray that He will use the Lutheran Churches in this area to be partners in this ministry.

Please call the ULC, 684-5224, or send an email to wsulc@sbcglobal.net to arrange a time for a visit. Thank you.

In His Name,
Toby Ortstadt, President, Administrative Council
University Lutheran Ministry Alliance

LADIES GUILD
Trinity Ladies Guild (LWML) will not be meeting during the months of June and July. If you would like to save “mites” (monies) in a mite box over the summer for the “5th Sunday for Mites” on August 29th, you may pick up a mite box from the information desk in the narthex. If you start putting loose change in a mite box now. It would probably be full by the end of August. There are also children’s mite boxes. They could have fun filling a mite box during the summer. It’s a worthwhile cause and helps others in our country and around the world learn about Jesus and His love for them.

THE KANSAS DISTRICT HAS PLEDGED to support God’s work in Guinea through prayers, funds to support missionaries and mission projects, and assistance in recruiting and encouraging additional volunteer and career missionaries. This year, the district is encouraging all congregations to lift up Pentecost Sunday as a celebration of our Guinea Partnership, receiving a special offering to support God’s mission in Guinea.

Our Kansas Mission Team – Rev. Rocky Mease, Jim Bradshaw, Jane Limback, Betty & David Kruse, and Nina Borgstadter – recently returned from a trip to Guinea. They traveled throughout Guinea, visiting churches, schools and villages. They witnessed firsthand the joys and challenges of ministry and led a spiritual retreat for our missionaries. To share their experiences and convey the current ministry needs, the team has put together a DVD for congregations to show on Pentecost Sunday, May 23. There will be highlights of specific mission and ministry needs of our missionaries, CCCS schools, and the church in Guinea and share how we here in Kansas can help to further God’s kingdom in Guinea.

Words of thanks from our missionaries:
- “Kansas has been a great blessing to us and our ministry.” Rev. Tim & Beth Heiney
- “The partnership with the Kansas District for us has meant bedrock support - something that we can always count on.” Tim & Heidi Norton
- “Thank you all for your prayers and support!” Andrea Herman
- “We know that when we go, you go with us! You are a blessing to our family and to the kingdom of God.” Jack & Cathy Carlos

Father’s Day — more than a day
Father’s Day was first observed in America in 1910. In 1923 the third Sunday of June was set as the official day, and in 1924 President Coolidge recommended its national observance. Today it has a fixed place in the calendar of special days in our country.

But devotion to and pride in fathers does not need to wait for official approval. As long as there have been families, love and respect for fathers has existed.

Lamb Mission Bank

God can do great things with our gifts. This craft reminds us that every little coin counts. When your lamb is full, empty out the coins and give them to a charity or church mission program.

What you need:
- Knit glove (black or white)
- 1-foot-long piece of thin ribbon, any color
- Stapler
- Craft glue or hot glue gun
- Fiberfill or cotton balls
- 2 googly eyes

What you do:
1. Staple one end of the ribbon to the inside of each side of the glove’s opening to make a hanger.
2. For the lamb’s body, cover the palm and half of the thumb with glue. Stick the fiberfill or cotton balls onto the glue.
3. Glue a googly eye to each side of the mitten’s thumb. (The other fingers will be the legs.)
4. Hang the lamb where you’ll see it often. Whenever you have extra change, drop it into your lamb bag.

A Letter from our Called Pastor Geoff Boyle

C.F.W. Walther, the first president of the Missouri Synod, once said to a room full of pastors-to-be:

When a place has been assigned to a Lutheran candidate of theology where he is to discharge the office of a Lutheran minister, that place ought to be to him the dearest, most beautiful and most precious spot on earth. He should be unwilling to exchange it for a kingdom. Whether it is in a metropolis or in a small town, on a bleak prairie or in a clearing in the forest, in a flourishing settlement or in a desert, to him it should be a miniature paradise. Why, then, should we poor sinners be unwilling to hurry with great joy to any place where we can lead other men, our fellow-sinners to salvation? (Twentieth Evening Lecture, February 27, 1885)

Well, this comes as welcome encouragement for my family as we await the next adventure in our lives! On April 27th, at a wonderful service in Fort Wayne, we heard: “Geoffrey R. Boyle: Grace Lutheran and Trinity Lutheran Churches, Wichita, Kansas.” There’s my “miniature paradise,” my “dearest, most beautiful, and most precious spot on earth”— for this is where the Lord calls me to serve His people with the Gospel of sins forgiven for Christ’s sake. This is “the Call.”

The call says where the Lord’s people are who seek the fruits of the cross—the body and blood of Jesus and the pure preaching of the Gospel. But how can they get these great gifts if there isn’t someone to give them? The Augsburg Confession answers for us: “So that we may obtain this faith, the ministry of teaching the Gospel and administering the Sacraments was instituted” (Article V).

Ordination is the rite by which men are placed into this office of preaching and delivering the sacraments. While it often looks quite spectacular, full of pomp and circumstance, it’s never merely that. The ritual calls attention to what the Lord is doing in this place at this time—He’s placing someone entirely unfit for such a calling into the work of being His hands, His feet, and His mouth. Ordination declares that this man, the one on whom all these pastors’ hands rest, is to be the delivery point of the Gospel for these people. When he preaches, Christ preaches. When he baptizes, Christ baptizes. When he forgives, Christ forgives. And when he holds before your eyes a little round wafer, declaring, “This is my body, given for you,” Christ gives Himself to you. Or ordination does all this because it’s not man’s doing, but God’s. As Jesus said to His disciples at their ordination: “The one who hears you hears me” (Lk 10:16).

And so it’s no surprise that ordination marks a very significant moment in any pastor’s life. I’d love to have as many of you as are able to join us for my ordination on August 22nd. When you come, have in mind that you are coming to a wedding, a marriage ceremony—a marriage of pastor and people. Once ordained—having received the laying on of hands and that bright red robe—my very first task as pastor is to feed my sheep with the very body and blood of Jesus. It’s to you that I’ve been called and it’s you I’ll feed. And like any marriage ceremony there’ll be a big party afterwards and you’re all invited!

Again, on August 22nd, 2010 I will be given to serve you. Just like marriage vows in a wedding, so also will there be ordination vows—vows to love and serve, cherish and obey, honor and extol the other. As your pastor I will promise to faithfully preach, teach, and live the Gospel of Christ for you. And as faithful sheep, you will promise to hear the voice of your Shepherd and rejoice in the gifts that the Lord gives.

We look forward to meeting all of you and hope you’ll come to the ordination.

Yours in Christ,

Geoff, Nikki, Ana, Claire, and Gabriela Boyle
