

Pastor Mark Lovett serves as pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Wichita, and as pastor loci of Concordia Academy. He has served many parishes, boards, and committees of the Kansas District these last sixteen years and currently serves as Circuit Visitor. Pr. Lovett is also a member of the Society of St. Polycarp, a society focused on disciplining oneself under the daily offices of prayer. His love for the Church is evident in his preaching, teaching, and conversation. Apropos to the topic this year, Pr. Lovett has recently introduced his parish to the historic diaconate and is excited to host the discussion of how this biblical office can be of great use to the congregations of Christ.

We'll balance our time in study, prayer, and leisure. The goal is to foster a faithful and healthy Biblical manhood.

Bring your Catechism and Bible, your preferred libation, as well as whatever you need to stay the night.

*"When I look at Your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars,
which You have set in place,
what is man
that You are mindful of him, and the son of man
that You care for him?"*
